

Grazinglands Research Laboratory

El Reno, OK

The Grazinglands Research Laboratory cordially invites you to our

Field Day 2013

Friday, May 10, 2013

Come see what we do!!!

Registration – 8:30 am to 9:00 am

Activities – 9:00 am to 3:30 pm

Lunch – Noon to 1:00 pm

Location: 4 miles west of El Reno, Exit #119 from I-40, and follow directional signs to Fort Reno Visitor Center

Program: Tours, Research Information, Exhibits and Free Lunch

Topics Include: Sustainable dual-purpose crop rotations, New forage materials: Cool-season grasses & legumes; Animal performance on dual-purpose canola; Monitoring forage quality; Market opportunities for Eastern Redcedar, Rotational grazing of native pastures, Climate variability & water resources

Please complete the RSVP form below and mail by April 26, 2013 to:

USDA-ARS Grazinglands Research Laboratory
7207 West Cheyenne Street
El Reno, OK 73036

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Number of reservations for lunch: _____ (no charge)

Special needs: _____

E-Mail: _____

You are also welcome to RSVP by calling 405-262-5291,
toll free 1-888-608-2727, fax 405-262-0133,
or by email to GRLInfo@ars.usda.gov.

For more information, call or visit our web site at: www.ars.usda.gov/spa/grl

